SOME TIME LATER...

Phi?

The officials are worried about you, you know?

Say it's time for you to move on from this world.

m-move on?!

Seriously...

They worry you've forgotten what we were taught, our first time world-crafting...

Have you?

Enjoy your work,
but don't put too
much of yourself in
it, lest you get {fatally lost}

What does that mean?

It is to become so inter-woven
with the work,
that it becomes
you and you
become it

Is that a bad thing?

To some,
perhaps not.

But you would never be able to create again. At least, not in the same way...

Never create
again?!

Then again..

You always were hopeless, heh.

I doubt you'll listen, even to me, but...

Please take care.

I don't want this to be the last time we talk

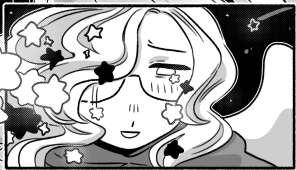

THE END...

what else?

oh,
something to
protect it,

for when
I'm gone..
